L. E. RHULE DIES SUDDENLY AT RANCH

Retired Las Cruces Business Man Is Seized With Fatal Illness.

Las Cruces, N. M., Sept. 19.—L. E. Rhule, a retired business man of Las Cruces, died at his ranch home, north of Las Cruces, at 5 o'clock yesterday evening. Mr. Rhule had a sudden attack of illness, dying in a few minutes. He had not been well in the morning. His daughter, Mrs. Clem De Wiggins, was in the yard and heard his unnatural breathing. Mr. Rhule died before she reached his side. Dr. Cornell was called, but could do nothing.

Mr. Rhule was 54 years of age, and is survived by three children, Mrs. Ed. Rammel, of Coffeyville, Kan.; Paul Rhule, who lives in Las Cruces; and Mrs. Clem De Wiggins, who lives at the ranch home.

Mr. Rhule was formerly engaged in the saloon business, but sold out his interest to Bert Ramsey this spring.

Mr. Rhule but recently returned from a trip to California, where he went for his health, and appeared to be much improved. He owned a small ranch north of town and he made it one of the most productive in the valley. His exhibits from this ranch took prizes at the last two annual Dona Ana county fairs. He secured valuable prizes at Albuquerque at the state fair last autumn. His car, decorated with ranch products, was a prize winner at the last Os-Aple parade in El Paso.

Mr. Rhule was one of the pioneer good roads men of this community. Before the good roads agitation had gained any prominence, it was his custom to attach a drag to his vehicle, either wagon or automobile, and drag the road between his ranch and Las Cruces, and he kept that road in good repair, while many of the other roads were full of chuck holes and very rough.

No arrangements have been made for the funeral on account of relatives who live at a distance. A sister, Miss Lena Rhule, resides at Avalon, Catalina Island, Calif. and another sister, Mrs. Earl R. Koller, resides at Ponca City, Okla.

Finishes Threshing on One Ranch.

R. E. French has finished threshing for John Bingham on the Crop ranch, but will later do more threshing for Mr. Bingham on his ranch down the valley near Camutillo. On the Crop ranch were threshed 5391 bushels of grain as follows: Wheat, 323 bushels; barley 393 bushels; oats 4675 bushels.

Mrs. C. T. Seale and Mrs. Dyne entertained on Wednesday afternoon the following guests: Mesdames Numa C. Freiger, A. Jacoby, Fred Hess, Clem De Wiggins, P. B. Hinton, C. W. East, R. E. Bassett, L. A. and H. A. Broadus, James G. Stuart, P. F. Campbell, Oscar Lohman, H. B. Holt, Sam Manasse, William Alexander Sutherland, Nancy Hamilton, M.

Miss Edna Walburn, who last year taught the first grade in the north ward school in Las Cruces, is now located in Roswell, where she is teaching the third grade in one of the schools at that place.

Mrs. J. P. Monty and children will soon return from a lengthy visit among friends and relatives in New York state. The junior member of the Farrall Bros. is at La Palomas Hot Springs, because of illness.

Read What They Say:

"I have insurance policies in four different companies—all of the same age and kind. My Union Central policy costs me many dollars less than any of the others." "My insurance in the Union Central costs less each year I have it, because of the remarkable and increasing annual dividends which your company pays me." "I wish all my insurance had been placed in the Union Central." "The greatest difference in the cost of my insurance is shown when comparing the Union Central with the other three policies I have." (These are a few of the opinions of well-known business and professional men of El Paso. Names furnished on request.)

It takes several years to learn the difference between life insurance companies from personal experience; and it's costly to learn that way. Why not profit by the actual experiences of others—and start right? Then you won't be sorry. The longer you wait—the higher your rate, so
